

STATE GRANGERS ASTONISHED.
The Grand Master Indigned in a Bigoted Political Trial.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 7.—There was an exciting episode in the State Grange Patrons of Husbandry at its annual session here yesterday afternoon. Major Kirk had welcomed the farmers in hearty terms in an open session, and expressed the sense of honor felt by Syracuse in entertaining the Grange. Lieut.-Gov. Jones responded for the Grange in a speech of some length, in which he described the general ideas and principles of the order. He said, among other things:

"Partisan politics have no place in our organization, and political discussion never arises in the Grange to destroy harmony. Our constitution wisely forbids it. Grangers are naturally independent, and we often see them making ability and integrity the test by which their vote should be cast rather than membership of party." The Major and Lieut.-Gov. Jones then withdrew, but the public discussion was continued. W. Judson Smith of this city read a paper on "Breding Cattle," and W. A. Armstrong, Grand Master and presiding officer of the Grange, was called on to discuss it. He made the following remarkable speech:

"I am sorry to say that the men who are now in power have helped Nature by a wise discrimination. Nature is a spiritual stimulant, but it almost impossible for ladies to take the kind of exercise that will produce health and beauty. But the blood must be kept moving, and the discovery which has done more to add health and beauty than any other known cause is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. This great remedy stimulates health. It is not an insecticide. Thousands of women have been saved from the grave by the use of this medicine. Every woman who uses it will remain in perfect health and beauty entirely through life."

When ladies are kept bright and attractive, and husbands are considerate and kind, few marriages will be failures."

Arranging the Washington Centennial.

A meeting of the Plan and Scope Committee on the Centennial of Washington's Inauguration was held yesterday afternoon. Those present were: Mayor Hugo J. Grant, James M. Vanzen, Cornelius Bissell, Fredrick S. Talman, Samuel D. Babcock, Elbridge T. Gerry and Clarence W. Bowen, Chairman and Secretary of the Plan and Scope Committee; the General Executive Committee; the Board of Directors from Elizabeth to Wall street, the Committees on State from the foot of Broadway, the reception in the City Hall, and the Entertainment Committee from the foot of Chambers street. The Board of Directors will escort the President to the services in St. Paul's church, where he will be taken in charge by the Governor de Jure and the Governor de facto. Mr. Grant is in Washington to see the arrangements. If you have friends in the penitentiary or in the State prison at Auburn, forty miles from here, the Governor of the State will be pleased to let you know what can be done to attend and grant all the petitions for pardons. I am glad your Mayor has left the room, but I am sorry the Governor has gone.

Mr. Armstrong's remarks fell like a thunder-clap on the astonished audience. He is the editor of the Eastern Standard, favorite newspaper of the country, and member of the Grange who will not expire until next year. His speech created great indignation among the members, and it is said that he has retired to his home in Connecticut for a while. The Grange to-day considered the subject of formally disclaiming the sentiments he expressed, and took action to that effect. Mr. Armstrong said to-day that he referred to Pitt as the master of Senator Hoisington. He also, after the storm had been raised, declared that his remarks were intended to be humorous.
